OVERVIEW:

For over 40-years Patrick (Rick) Quinlivan has been a successful litigation attorney well-known for his proactive and innovative approach to settling cases. Whether assisting companies or individuals in resolving their business and personal disputes, Rick's approach focuses on developing a deep understanding of the issues and anticipating potential problems.

Even when the stakes are high Rick resolves the toughest problems by getting to the heart of each matter. Understanding begins with listening. The key to successful mediation, as in litigation, is to uncover the factors that influence decision making and to use that knowledge to develop creative solutions.

When litigation is unavoidable, opposing counsel know that with over 75 jury verdicts Rick is more than capable in the courtroom. His excellent record has earned him the respect of his peers as well as the complete loyalty of his clients. Over the years Rick has represented major national corporations, mid and small-size businesses, and individuals. But regardless of the size of the client or complexity of the matter, Rick regards every client's matter as mission critical.

All of this experience has positioned Rick to be an effective and realistic mediator and communicator resolving business disputes, personal injury cases, employment matters and estate/trust issues.

Rick has extensive experience in matters involving:

- ♦ Business and commercial disputes
- ♦ Catastrophic personal injury
- ♦ Property damage
- ♦ Product liability
- ♦ Employment matters
- ♦ Trust disputes
