

Biographical Information

Maria M. Rullo, Esq.

Maria M. Rullo is an attorney with 38 years' experience in litigation and transactional matters including 15 years as General Counsel.

Areas of Expertise:

General Civil Litigation | Employment Law ♦ Human Resources ♦ Insurance Bad Faith Personal Injury ♦ Premises Liability ♦ Not-For-Profit Corporations ♦ Religious and Charitable Institutions ♦ Private Education ♦ Contracts ♦ Small to Medium Business Representation

Maria began her legal career in Health Care Law representing hospitals and medical group practices across the country in license and compliance issues. She served as Vice President and Corporate Counsel for a major health care system before moving full time into litigation specializing in Insurance Bad Faith defense with the firm of Hill, Genson, Even Crandall and Wade.

After 11 years with the Hill Genson firm, Maria was asked by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Orange to serve as its Human Resources Director and then General Counsel where she was responsible for the oversight and management of all of the legal transactions for the Diocese-owned 59 parish churches, 49 elementary schools, 3 high schools, the Diocese Pastoral Center, Cathedral Complex and a planned Senior and Assisted Living Community as well. Maria was responsible for the human resources administration and benefits for the Diocese' 5,000 employees.

During her tenure with the Diocese of Orange, Maria was responsible for the mediation, negotiations and eventual settlement of 95 clergy abuse cases over a 2 year period culminating in the first church settlement of abuse cases in California. Maria led the legal team for the $57.9 million acquisition, purchase and leaseback of the 39 acre iconic Crystal Cathedral complex and its corporate restructure and transformation to the Christ Catholic Cathedral.

Maria has mediated several litigated cases involving employment law, wrongful termination and discriminatory employment practices, personal injury, health care law, medical malpractice, commercial and residential real estate, breach of contract, and other general business disputes. For the past 10 years, Maria has been an active arbitrator for the OCBA Mandatory Fee Dispute program.

Maria has successfully completed mediation courses at the Strauss Institute including Mediating the Litigated Civil Case and 2 summer institute programs of intensive 4 day training in dispute resolution theories and practices.
