

Biographical Information

Steve Weinberg, Esq.

Mr. Weinberg's professional career spans 43 years as a civil litigator. Over that period of time his practice has been devoted to personal injury litigation including medical negligence, products liability, vehicular collision and highway design cases. He has tried in excess of 100 Superior Court jury trials for claims of personal injury and wrongful death. In addition to an extensive civil trial completion record, Mr. Weinberg has mediated hundreds of complex cases. He has been a Member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) since 1985 and has held the rank of Advocate since 2005. Mr. Weinberg has been "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbe since 1980.

Mr. Weinberg graduated from the Pepperdine University School of Law in 1975 after receiving his undergraduate degree from UCLA in 1972. Mr. Weinberg first worked at the Popelka, Allard, McCowan & Jones firm in San Jose before beginning a long tenure with the offices of Thomas T. Anderson in Indio. The law firm of Anderson, Parkinson, Weinberg & Miller has long been considered one of the superior plaintiff's personal injury law firms in the State of California. Since 1988, Mr. Weinberg has had his own firm.

Mr. Weinberg has continued his professional training at the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at the Pepperdine University School of Law.

Mr. Weinberg and his wife, Stevie, have been married for 43 years. Their son Joshua graduated Indiana University where he was a member of the baseball team. Steve enjoys skiing, traveling, reading and playing tennis. He has also possessed a commercial pilot's license with instrument rating for over 40 years and has recently developed a passion for flying sail planes. He has served the community in youth sports for many years.

He has made countless academic and professional presentations to various groups including the Consumer Attorneys of California, Orange County Trial Lawyers, Western Trial Lawyers Association, American Association for Justice, ABOTA, the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel and the California Continuing Education of the Bar.

Mr. Weinberg is available for Mediations throughout Southern California including, Los Angeles County, Orange County, Riverside County, San Bernardino County and San Diego County.

