

Biographical Information

Gregory G. Brown, Esq.

Gregory G. Brown is an AV Rated attorney who has mediated cases since the mid 1990's. He has resolved well over a thousand cases through arbitration, mediation, and trial. He is well known throughout Southern California as an individual that gets results, even in the most difficult and contentious disputes. Brown's extensive trial, litigation and mediation background provides a rock-solid foundation from which to draw upon when serving as a mediator or arbitrator.

In addition to his litigation background, Brown expanded his mediation skills in 2011 by completing the renowned Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution. He has served as a private mediator and as an MSC mediator for the Superior Courts. Brown is a member of the Southern California Mediation Association and has a diverse background handling thousands of cases on both the plaintiff and defense side. This provides a very unique perspective, which provides significant insight when mediating cases.

Before lending his skills to the dispute resolution world, Brown was an accomplished jury trial veteran – a member of ABOTA and a Certified Specialist in Civil Trial Advocacy, a distinction earned by approximately 150 lawyers in California. A trial lawyer for over 32 years, he spent over 200 days as lead trial counsel in jury trials throughout California.
