

Biographical Information

David J. Van Til, Esq.

Areas of Practice:

Business Dispute ♦ Employment Dispute ♦ Personal Injury ♦ Property Damage ♦ Medical Malpractice ♦ Real Estate

Education:

Calvin College

1964-68

BA Psychology

USD School Of Law

1968-1972

Associate Editor of Law Review

Commercial Civil Organizational Mediation 1994

Pepperdine University “Mediation Skills” 1996

Employment:

Aetna Casualty Ins, Claims Representative

1966-1972

Worked as claims representative last two years of college and all of Law School. Handled auto claims, medical mal- practice, workers compensation, commercial claims.

David J. Van Til's bio continued page 2

David J. Van Til Atty at Law

1972-1992

Worked as civil law litigator in areas of personal injury, employment, medical malpractice primarily as a sole practitioner and in some instances in association with other individuals or firms.

During these years also owned several restaurants and developed multiple hotels, and residential properties. Cases ranged from minor to disputes involving several million-dollar claims.

1992 -present has been a fulltime legal mediator/litigation consultant either in association with J.A.M.S (1992-2004) IVAMS (2004-2009 and rejoined in 2022) or an independent practitioner handling cases though out Southern California. During this period the cases involved personal injury, employment, property damage, business/contract litigation, medical malpractice.

The number of cases handled to date total nearly 10,000 and vary broadly in type and value of case.

Hobbies:

Developing the body for health, function, appearance, and longevity.

This includes a lifelong study of the best exercise, diet and supplements to achieve these goals in the most effective, efficient, and verifiable means available.

This passion includes competing in bodybuilding competitions and developing fitness and wellness programs for working men and women professionals and seniors as old as 90.

Availability:

Available in person throughout Southern California and remotely by telephone or Zoom

Note.

Mr. Van Til prides himself in providing MEDIATION services that provide effective results and that are time and cost effective and LITIGATION MANAGEMENT SERVICES that help individuals and/or companies manage the exposure and legal costs of litigation.