Background

Linda is an approachable, impartial, perceptive mediator who excels at settling cases. She has practiced law for over 40 years and earned a reputation as a tenacious and successful advocate for her clients. Linda brings that same dedication to her mediation practice and loves the satisfaction of resolving cases. An eternal optimist at heart, Linda views dispute obstacles as opportunities and embraces the challenge.

Linda co-founded and served as Managing Partner at a busy AV rated boutique law firm where she represented plaintiffs and defendants in personal injury, civil rights and medical malpractice cases. Empathetic, respectful and fair, she connects with attorneys and parties alike so they can be heard and vent - giving her the opportunity to understand the nuances of the case while providing a supportive process that allows for effective, productive and expeditious resolution of cases. She has worked extensively with public entities, police departments, sheriff departments, fire districts, third party administrators, health care providers, hospital administration, City Councils and the Board of Supervisors for several Counties.

An experienced trial lawyer, Linda has volunteered her time as a settlement officer in Orange County, Riverside and San Bernardino County Superior Courts. She has been selected and serves as a member of the U.S. District Court, Central District Mediation Panel. As an attorney and mediator, she has been involved in more than 500 mediation and arbitrations.
